Things to do in Boulder City for the Entire Family

Boulder City is not exactly the tourist Mecca of Nevada. I cannot quite put my finger on it, but I seem to remember some city about thirty minutes away really draws people in. Anyway, Boulder city does have its activities. Here is a list of specific things one can do while in Boulder City.

The family can zipline Bootleg Canyon. You and your family will travel down one-and-a-half miles of zipline as you hike around Bootleg Canyon.

You can visit the historic Boulder Dam Hotel and go into the Hoover Dam Museum located on the hotel's first floor. The informative, interactive museum tells the story of the men and women who braved the desolation of the Southern Nevada desert to build Hoover Dam and Boulder City.

The family can take a Grand Canyon helicopter tour. Papillon Helicopter Tours, located just southeast of Las Vegas, has a state-of-the-art Boulder City terminal that serves as the launch point for Grand Canyon helicopter tours. Tours leaving here offer guests the chance to explore the Grand Canyon in a variety of ways.

Tour Boulder City's Train Museum and ride the Nevada Southern Railway excursion train at the Nevada State Railroad Museum.

Play a round of Golf at one of Boulder City's two Public Golf Courses, Boulder City Golf Course is by far the most affordable golf course in Southern Nevada, and has been that way since 1936. The Boulder City Golf Course was voted "Best Bargain Course in Southern Nevada" three years in a row by Vegas Golfer Magazine, and presented with the Vegas Golfer Fairway Award.

Take a train ride from Boulder city to Railroad Pass and back. Regular fare tickets encompass the 40 minute excursion run, with your preference of seating in either our climate controlled Pullman coaches or in open air seating. Finally the entire family can take a cruise around Lake Mead.
